Scholarship information:

This scholarship is offered to support a student engaged in postgraduate research on freshwater management for their Masters thesis. Please note: The scholarship is for the thesis year of the Masters qualification only. The funding supports research relating to any relevant aspect of water resource management, but must be supervised by a Waterways member.

Preference will be given to students enrolled full-time in Masters-level thesis research, but consideration will also be given to supporting part-time Master's thesis students for their first year, and/or partial support may be offered for a Postgraduate Diploma dissertation, if a suitable research project is proposed. PhD students are not eligible for this scholarship. Criteria for award of the scholarship include academic performance in year 4 studies, and topic relevance to current Waterways research priorities.
